Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton

JERUSALEM

Jerusalem, my happy home,
How do I sigh for thee!
When shall my exile have an end,
Thy joys when shall I see!
Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
Jerusalem, my happy home,
How do I sigh for thee!

No sun, no moon, in borrow'd light,
Revolve thine hours away;
The Lamb on Calvary's mountain slain,
Is thy eternal day;
Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
Jerusalem, my happy home,
How do I sigh for thee!

From every eye He wipes a tear,
All sighs and sorrows cease;
No more alternate hope or fear,
But everlasting peace.
Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
Jerusalem, my happy home,
How do I sigh for thee!

The thought of thee to us is given,
Our sorrows to beguile;
To anticipate the joys of heaven,
In His eternal smile.
Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
Jerusalem, my happy home,
How do I sigh for thee!

NOTE: Although the authorship of the first stanza of this hymn is unknown, the words of the second, third and fourth stanzas are from the pen of Mother Seton. The familiar melody of the hymn is also Mother Seton's. From the earliest days in the Valley, this lovely hymn has been sung on all occasions.

HIS GRACE, THE MOST REV. MICHAEL J. CURLLY, D. D.

ARCHBISHOP OF BALTIMORE

DO YOU KNOW--

THAT, under the auspices of His Eminence, the late Cardinal Gibbons, the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae was founded by the Alumnae Association of St. Joseph's College, Emmitsburg, Md., by its representatives, Clare I. Cogan (Sister Mary de Paul), and Mrs. James J. Sheeran.

THAT, the Organization Convention was held in New York City. November 27, 1914, represented by 102 Alumnae Associations of the United States and Canada.

THAT, one year later the Constitutional Convention was held in Chicago when the report of the Permanent Organization Committee was adopted, and Mary Immaculate was chosen patroness and model.

THAT, Conventions have been held since in Baltimore in 1916, St. Louis, 1919; Boston, 1920; Louisville, 1922; Phildelphia, 1924; St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Ind., 1926; Niagara Falls, Ontario, 1928, and St. Joseph's College, Emmitsburg, Md., 1930.

THAT, the I. F. C. A. holds membership in the United States, Canada, Belgium, Ireland, England, France, Switzerland, and Australia.

THAT, His Holiness, the late Pope Benedict XV, sent an autographed letter commending the Catholic Alumnae on their efforts toward modesty in dress.

THAT, the I. F. C. A. has completed the following projects:

(1) Life membership in the Sisters College, Catholic University of America.

(2) Membership in the N. C. C. W. and the International Union of Catholic Women's Leagues.

(3) The Main Altar, known as the Mary Memorial Altar in the Crypt of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Catholic University, in tribute to the Honorary President of the I. F. C. A., the Rt. Rev. Bishop Shahan.

(4) A $10,000.00 Scholarship in the Sisters College, Catholic University, known as the Edward A. Pace Scholarship.

(5) One $10,000.00 Scholarship for Sisters, Maryland Chapter, and three $3,000.00 Scholarships for Sisters, Virginia, District of Columbia, New York, Michigan Chapters.

(6) Forty College Scholarships have been donated by twenty-six colleges in response to the I. F. C. A. appeal.

(7) More than 1,000 books transcribed in Revised Braille for the Xavier Free Publication Society for the Blind.

(8) The Motion Picture Bureau of the I. F. C. A. sends its recommendations to every country of the world.

(9) Book, Music and Art Clubs have been established.

(10) A library of autographed volumes has been placed in the Sisters College, Catholic University, Washington, D. C.

(11) A Catholic Press Hour has been established in every federated school.

(12) Scrap Books of the Federation's publicity have been kept by its Historians since the inception of the organization.

(13) The endorsement of practically every member of the Hierarchy has been obtained for the establishment of Alumnae Communion Saturday—the Saturday following the First Friday.

(14) The day before Mother's Day has been established as a day to honor Mary, the greatest of mothers, when the members receive Holy Communion, wear publicly her Miraculous Medal, and perform some work of charity or sacrifice in her honor.

(15) Formal protests sent regularly during the persecution of Mexico.

(16) A Bulletin covering the activities of the I. F. C. A. has been published quarterly since 1917, and bound copies have been presented to His Holiness, Pope Pius XI, for his private library.
